

---

For authors and reviewers

---

Acta Politologica publishes texts on a wide range of political science themes, including comparative politics, political philosophy, political sociology, international relations, European studies, security studies etc. The journal accepts for review original manuscripts based on the author's own research, as well as review articles, reviews, reports from conferences, etc.

All original manuscripts undergo double-blind peer-review process, which results in at least two reviews and their respective recommendations. The reviewers receive an anonymous version of the manuscripts exclusively through the AcPo online submission system, which is also used for the subsequent submission of reviews. Articles are published in Czech or English.

Each article shall include (in a footnote on the first page) the article author's name, position at an institution, full address, contact information (e-mail address) and Researcher ID. It is also possible to publish another identifier (for instance Scopus ID, ORCID number). In addition, the articles shall have abstract and keywords. Any attachments (tables, graphs, diagrams or images etc.) shall be numbered continuously. These attachments shall also include their source. Authors are required to adhere to the Acta Politologica citation norm.