
Call for Abstracts: VI. Congress of the Czech Political Science Association

VI. Congress of the Czech Political Science Association - CPSA (Česká společnost pro politické vědy - ČSPV) - Call for Abstracts

VI. Congress of the Czech Political Science Association will take place in Prague (Charles University) during 9th - 11th September 2015. The Association calls for abstracts and proposals of papers and panels. Contributions from political science and related fields are welcome. The keynote speech will be delivered by Prof. Gianfranco Pasquino from Johns Hopkins University.

More information will be continuously announced at www.cspv.cz

For the purposes of its Congress, the Czech Political Science Association cooperates with ALPPI and other journals. Congress papers that fit into ALPPI's profile and that meet quality-standards for publication can be published as an ALPPI special issue (www.alppi.eu)

Deadlines for Papers and Panels

Deadline for panels - 31 Mar 2015
Deadline for papers - 30 Apr 2015

Further Information

Panel proposals: should include 4-5 papers where no more than 2 can be authored by participants from the same institution.

Panel proposals should include: name of a given panel, name of papers and names of their authors (including their institution and email), chair, vice-chair (only in the case when the panel's chair presents her/his paper at the panel), a short abstract of the panel (about 500 words), short abstracts of papers (about 500 words), working language of the panel (abstracts should be written in the working language of the panel)

Paper proposals: should include an abstract (about 500 words) and language of the paper

Both members and non-members of the Czech Political Science Association are welcome to send their abstracts. The working languages of the Congress are Czech, Slovak, English.